9 AM to 5 PM, Monday - Friday

Pacifica celebrates 40 years of listener-sponsored community radio April 15th. In addition to celebrating Pacifica's 40th birthday this month, KPFK and its great audience have plenty to celebrate as well. KPFK's Winter Fund Drive (February 27th through March 8th) was an overwhelming success. You raised a phenomenal $172,045 in ten days, the most successful fund drive ever. It is with a great deal of accomplishment and pride that I thank all of our listeners for their incredible support. A number of people contributed to this effort including staff, programmers and volunteers.

These ten day periods are extremely labor-intensive and demand a level of commitment by staff that far exceeds the normal requirements of a job situation. Thanks to everyone on staff for working towards this major success. I would also like to thank all of the volunteer phone answerers, administrators and producers for their great job. I would like to especially encourage all of our listeners who pledged to please pay their pledge as soon as you receive your bill. These fund raisers are important to the station, not just for your visible show of support, but for the actual dollars to pay the bills. Please do not delay.

The General Manager Search Committee is concluding interviews of the finalists for General Manager, and a recommendation to the Executive Director is expected soon. Hopefully, we will be looking at a start date of between April 1st and April 15th for a new General Manager. As usual, these processes are very difficult, involving considerable scrutiny and analysis. I trust that the judgement of the Search Committee will provide KPFK with capable leadership for the coming years. I will officially be on board as the General Manager until the new Manager is hired. During this interim period, however, I will be taking vacation time until April 1st.

KPFK and FAIR will present our second annual media conference on April 29th.

This is a historic year for Pacifica and KPFK and this conference will celebrate our 40th anniversary with a national broadcast of the morning portion of the conference. This one day conference at Hollywood High School Auditorium, promises to be an event that you will not want to miss. Last year we unfortunately had to turn away over 500 people at the door, so I would encourage you all to please register early. As a result the national livebroadcast, the conference will be starting promptly at 9 AM. Come prepared for a full day of media activism.

Lastly, and I am pretty sure this time, this will mark my last report to the listener. Thanks once again for your support during my tenure. I would like to encourage everyone to extend even more to the new General Manager. This is a very difficult job to get a handle on and, unfortunately, there is no leisure time to get oriented to everything. One must, as they say, hit the ground running.

The Pacifica Foundation provides the KPFK mailing list to an organization which in turn rents or exchanges, on behalf of the Foundation, mailing lists of other non-profit organizations. If you object to having your name and address used in this way, please write to our Subscriptions Department, enclosing a recent Folio label, and we will omit you from our exchange list.

If your request to have your name and address not given to other organizations has already been entered in our computer, the letters "NX" will appear on the top line of your mailing label, to the right of the expiration date.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

RADIO WITH VISION SERIES: PACIFICA'S 40TH ANNIVERSARY

The vision seemed at that time idealistic beyond that faculty so dear to the American heart — common sense. In the imagination and hope of these few ordinary people in the San Francisco Bay Area was a dream of radio stations in major metropolitan areas throughout the United States. Each would be supported, not through advertising, but voluntarily by its own local community of listeners. A quality of programming unprecedented in the history of radio would in time reach millions of listeners daily. The art and thought of contemporary and traditional times would be broadcast, along with the most thoughtful possible exploration into all issues affecting the individual in each community and in the nation as a whole. Individual talents and insights seldom heard in the public life of a community would be given a voice in an atmosphere of informality, candor, and freedom. And ultimately these stations would become production centers for the distribution of programs reflecting the best in American life to countries throughout the world.

This was a whopping ambitious project for a few utterly unknown and unfinanced individuals....
—Eleanor McKinney, first Program Director, from her book, The Exacting Ear.

This month we begin our 40th Anniversary Radio With Vision Series, a salute to the founding of Pacifica Radio. Be sure to celebrate with us Saturday evening, April 15th, at 9pm, and check your Folio listings for other programs in this series.

AMERICAN DIALOGUES-Rebuilding What Was Destroyed - Few Americans had heard of Vietnam when Fredy Champagne's infantry division was shipped there in 1965. They found a war where they took casualties from an invisible enemy, and conducted search-and-destroy operations in villages inhabited only by women and children. Upon his return to the States, Champagne suffered from nightmares, alcoholism and other ailments common to post-traumatic stress disorder — what he calls "the disease of veterans who can't forget." But Fredy Champagne eventually decided that, while there was no way to forget his time in Vietnam, there was a way to add some new, healing memories. Champagne and other Vietnam veterans launched the Veterans Vietnam Restoration Project, an ambitious national organizing effort to send teams of veterans over to Vietnam in order to build a medical clinic. By rebuilding what was destroyed, Champagne says that the veterans hope to repay a debt to the Vietnamese, and better come to terms with themselves. Hosted by Robert Foxworth.

But art and the communication of ideas...are risky affairs, for it can never be predicted in those activities just when the purely individual and abnormal may assert itself. Indeed to get any real art or any significant communication, one must rely entirely on individuals, and must resign himself to accept not only their uniqueness but the possibility that the individual may at any time fail. By suppressing the individual, the unique, the industry reduces the risk of failure (abnormality) and assures itself a standard product for mass consumption. --Lew Hill

Then too, there is always a crisis — a major clash of personalities, a dispute over the purpose and function of the foundation, a key dismissal or resignation. And so hours must be spent in whispered conversations at the local bar or coffee shop, or late into the evening in messy offices, among used coffee cups and the stale smell of too many cigarettes. Pacifica's dynamic program policy... attracts some strong and creative people. She has not maintained a dynamic administrative formula within which such people can work successfully. —Christopher Koch

RADIO WITH VISION SERIES: PACIFICA IS 40

At three o'clock in the afternoon on April 15, 1949, Lew Hill stepped to a microphone, and the workmen, hammering down the carpet at the last moment, paused in their work. The rest of us were busy pounding out program copy and continuity on typewriters nearby. He announced for the first time: "This is KPFA, listener-sponsored radio in Berkeley." For a moment the typewriter copy blurred before our eyes — and the project was underway. —Eleanor McKinney, KPFA's first Program Director

In celebration of the Fortieth Anniversary of Lew Hill's "brash experiment," we present the story of the founding of the first listener-sponsored radio station, much of it told in the words of the people who made it happen. Tonight's program includes Larry Josephson's eloquent documentary, Pacifica is 25, featuring interviews with Joy Hill, Eleanor McKinney and many others.

12 O'CLOCK ROCK-Anti-hit radio: six hours without one REM or Guns 'n' Roses track. Instead you'll hear an assortment of hard-working non-stars from all over the planet. Some tracks are rough and grungy. Some tracks are danceable (though you'll never hear funk or disco) and some tracks are 100 proof noise and guaranteed to offend any Steely Dan or Sting fan.

And the audience has been willing to listen through hours of dull lectures or badly recorded symposiums on the Biological Basis of Cross Fertilization, or the off-beat programs for tiny minorities who otherwise would have nothing for them on the mass media, waiting for something that brings a new area of life home to them. -Christopher Koch

The Greatest Story Never Told

The Conqueror, a 1950's grade B movie, was filmed in the St. George, Utah desert, close to the A-bomb test site just after a series of above-ground blasts.

The stars were John Wayne, Susan Hayward, Agnes Moorhead and Pedro Armendariz. The director was Dick Powell and the producer was Howard Hughes. All developed cancer, as did over half of the cast, crew and accompanying family members. No one in government will acknowledge or investigate the connection. Nor will Hollywood!

Secrets In the Sand parallels this nuclear cover up.
